			Total	51.14

2. Regarding our position within the Hulic Group as a parent company, controlling shareholder (excluding the parent company), or other affiliated companies

We have entered into a capital and business alliance since September 2020 with the following objectives, ① jointly exploring new businesses related to education, ② leveraging real estate owned and developed by the Hulic Group for new initiatives within our group, ③ receiving real estate strategy support from the Hulic Group for our group's new developments, ④ mutual utilization of both companies' knowledge, expertise, and networks.

Futhermore As announced in the notice dated May 28, 2024, titled "Results of Hulic Co., Ltd.'s Tender Offer for Our Company's Shares and Change in Parent Company," Hulic has become our parent company through a tender offer and a third-party allotment of new shares, further strengthening our relationship.

(Concurrent Positions of Officers)

Position	Name	Other Significant Positions in Affiliated Companies	Reason for Appointment
Director (Non-executive)	Saburo Nishiura	Chairman of the Board Hulic Co., Ltd. (Current)	Based on extensive experience as a corporate executive, it was determined that Mr. Nishiura's appointment would contribute to enhancing our company's corporate value.

3. There are no significant matters to report regarding transactions with the parent company, controlling shareholders (excluding the parent company), or other affiliated companies.
4. Regarding measures to protect minority shareholders in transactions with Hulic, we maintain a policy of applying appropriate terms similar to those of ordinary transactions. We evaluate the validity of transaction details and conditions, and consider the appropriateness of executing transactions.
Additionally, we have established a special committee to review and consider transactions or actions where the interests of controlling shareholders nominated by the Board and minority shareholders conflict, upon consultation by the Board of Directors.
